Most people are too busy to read the memoirs of the folks most involved with the GREAT RECESSION. So we’ve compiled, all in one place, seven insightful reviews of those memoirs written by Wichita State University professor Dwight Murphey, the long-time associate editor of The Journal of Social, Political and Economic Studies and author of The Great Economic Debacle – and Beyond.

Here’s a bird’s-eye view of what two Fed chairmen, two Treasury Secretaries, and three “overseers” of the Bailout have written. Each memoir is an important document of economic history. They are:

• Alan Greenspan’s The Age of Turbulence
• Ben Bernanke’s The Courage to Act
• Henry Paulson’s On the Brink
• Timothy Geithner’s Stress Test
• Neil Barofsky’s Bailout
• Sheila Bair’s Bull by the Horns
• Elizabeth Warren’s A Fighting Chance

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Denver College of Law, Murphey went from law practice to a professorship at Wichita State University. He is the author of Liberalism in Contemporary America; Burkean Conservatism and Classical Liberalism; America Challenged: Issues Foreign and Domestic; Understanding the United States: Illusions that Guide Contemporary America; Out of the Ashes: A Cautionary Analysis of America’s Global Position.
